Arsenal and Native City in the Hands of the Rebels.

River Forts Are Expected to Be Taken by Tonight.

MARINES ARE LANDED

By Foreign Warships to Protect the Concessions.

Province of Yun-Nan Has Proclaimed Its Independence.

Shanghai, Nov. 3.—The arsenal and the native city of Shanghai were taken over by the revolutionists late this afternoon. No resistance was offered by the authorities or such of the publics remains loyal. It is expected Wu-Sung, at the mouth of the Wu-Sung river and ten miles north of Shanghai, and the upper river forts will fall tonight. It is believed Nan-king and Ching-Kiang will be captured by the rebels tomorrow.

Some of the foreign warships landed marines in this city before the rebels took possession. Foreign volunteers were called out and have taken every precaution to protect the concessions. It is reported that rebels at Kiang-Kiang have seized the British tugboat Nanseong.

It became evident early in the afternoon that the revolutionists proposed to assume control of affairs here within a short time, though it was not thought they would occupy the arsenal before night. As the day progressed the revolutionary flag was hoisted over the buildings in the vicinity of the arsenal and thousands wearing on their arms the white band insignia of the Constitutionalists gathered in the streets.

The police and native soldiers made no attempt to interfere, on the contrary fraternizing with the insurgents. The tactics, realizing the inevitable, caused notices to be posted stating that the native city might be taken over by the revolutionists tonight and expressing the hope that the police would not be thrown into a panic and that the shops selling food should not be closed except at the usual hour.

Wire Communication Cut.—At 5:30 o'clock all telephone and telegraph communication with the arsenal was cut off. The rebel troops grew to greater proportions and in the natural excitement a number of shots were fired by the government forces in the direction of the arsenal.

At this point the Tientsin fleet, the arsenal and native city quietly capitulated. The revolutionary leaders here have telegraphed to Gen. Li Yuan-Heng, the head of the rebel movement, advising him to cease hostilities pending development at Peking. Their message is being forwarded to Gen. Li from Wu-Hu by a special dispatch boat.

Complaints reached this city today that the rebels holding the forts below Kiang-Kiang have been firing indiscriminately at steamers passing that city in the night time. The latest advice from Hankow give assurance that the foreign concessions are safe and have not been seriously disturbed by the rioting in the native city.

The province of Yun-Nan, on the southwestern frontier of China, has declared its independence according to reports received here today. Yun-Nan is known as the Switzerland of China, has an area of nearly 100,000 square miles and a population estimated at 12,000,000. It is rich in minerals, stores of anthracite, agriculture and stock raising are extensively carried on and the province produces some of the best grades of tea. It was the principal scene of the great Mohmand rebellion, which lasted for 35 years and was suppressed in 1872.

Revolutionists Explain.—San Francisco, Nov. 2.—According to a dispatch received from Shanghai today by the Chinese Free Press the revolutionists explain their act in firing on a ship carrying the Japanese flag by saying the vessel was filled with munitions of war for the imperial troops and merely used the flag as a blind. The incident occurred on the river near Han Yang where the great arsenal is located.

The revolutionists are said to be oc-

Gerald Benton, the giant guard of Oberlin, who won a place on the Washburn team in 1909 but has played little on account of parental objection, announced last night that he would play in the K. U. game Saturday if the coach wanted him. He has been working out more than a week and is in good condition. He weighs in at 210 pounds and is fast on his feet. It is more probable he will be used at guard, as Bishop and McIntosh are taking good care of the tackle positions, while the rebels on the other side of the river had brought long range guns into play from Wu Chang fortifications and were firing with fair effect on the loyalist positions. The fighting was clear and free from the European concessions and several stray shells dropped in the British concession, but without doing serious damage.

The viceroy of Kwang Tung province at Canton has dispatched a gunboat to this city to transport an immense supply of ammunition, firearms and maxims which she has contracted for with foreign firms.

HALTS TO REST

Taft Will Be at Hot Springs Until Monday.

Has Made a New Record for Trips by Presidents.

COVERS 13,436 MILES

Will Add 1,834 Miles Before "Swing" Is Completed.

Greatest Number of Stops Were Made in Kansas.

Hot Springs, Nov. 3.—Although President Taft had planned a four days stay in Hot Springs with the idea of resting, he will do some work here on his annual message to congress.

Mr. Taft reached Hot Springs today. They were driven to the hotel that will be the "White House" until Monday. Almost as soon as breakfast was over Mr. Taft hurried out to the golf links to play his second game since he left Beverly on Sept. 16. Secretary Hilles stopped at Washington. Mr. Hilles will collect data from various government departments for use of the president in writing his message.

Mr. Taft will devote much attention in the coming message to a discussion of tariff reform with reference to the forthcoming report of the tariff board on the wool and cotton schedules. He will discuss the "trust question" and recommend that the federal incorporation bill drawn up and presented to congress two years ago be enacted into law.

The reports of both the Hughes commission which is investigating second class postage rates and the railroad security committee, which is looking into the question of stock watering will be in Mr. Taft's hands in a few days and he will enable him to treat these matters in his message.

Conservation, some discussion of Alaska, a naval re-organization as suggested in the president's statement issued on the yacht Mayflower yesterday after the naval review at New York and currency reform are among the matters which will be brought to the attention of congress.

Has Set a New Mark.—According to the official figures of the "swing around the circle" kept under the direction of Secretary Hilles the trip has been the longest ever taken by a president. In going from Beverly, Mass., to Hot Springs by way of Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Washington and Denver he has covered 13,436 miles. Mr. Taft has traveled 13,436 miles, beating his own previous record by about 500 miles.

Before he returns to Washington for the winter the president will visit Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee and will add 1,834 miles to the record. Mr. Hilles' figures show that Mr. Taft passed through 38 states and made speeches in 20 of them.

The governor of each state gave him a welcome and Governor Colquhoun of Utah gave him a special welcome. Mr. Taft has received 13,436 miles, beating his own previous record by about 500 miles.

CITY BONDS OF KANSAS

Amount Is Something Over Six Million Dollars.

According to figures compiled today by State Auditor W. E. Davis $6,490,000 in municipal bonds alone were issued during the fiscal year in the state ending last June. Wyandotte leads with $2,571,851. Shawnee issued $227,451 and Sedgewick $270,131. Fifty counties out of the 105 in the state issued no city improvement bonds.

SOMETHING NEW.

Never Before Attempted by a Daily Newspaper.

A Full Page of Comics in Colors Everyday.

[From Today's Noon Edition.]

The State Journal today presents something unique in daily journalism. It gives its readers a full comic page printed in colors; black, blue and red.

This has never before been attempted by any daily newspaper in the United States, so that the State Journal is first.

Many papers have printed comic pages in colors on Saturday evening and Sunday morning, but no paper in the United States has had the temerity to try to print colors every day.

The expense is enormous, but after careful calculations extending over a period of more than six months and great advance preparations, the State Journal finds that today it is ready to spring its surprise; and it does so.

You can buy this paper for two cents a copy, or have the city edition delivered at your office or place of residence by the carrier at the rate of ten cents per week, ten pages or more every day, with a double number on Saturday.

If you want this paper to succeed, buy the noon edition for two cents from some newsboy regularly and give the city edition, which will be twice the size of this edition tonight, that is twenty pages, at your home or office by carrier.

As the theaters say, the free list is now suspended. We can not give away any of these papers in colors to policemen, Capital advertising men, or anyone else.

If you want two copies daily, pay for them. Don't expect to get one copy at your home and another at the State Journal office, free by calling for it. Don't ask it. We can't afford it. If we continue this pictorial daily edition we must be economical in every respect, save waste, do away with the city edition, which will be many pages larger than the noon edition, for ten cents per week delivered at your home by carrier.

From Friday's Noon Edition.

This is a noon edition. Don't pay more than 2 cents for it except at newsstands, 5 cents.

This edition of The State Journal is our noon edition. It is printed primarily for circulation in the surrounding towns reached by trains leaving Topeka between 11:30 a. m. and 2:45 p. m. o'clock, such as Carbondale, Scranton, Burlington, Osga City, Wamego, Junction City, Manhattan, Williamsburg, Lawrence, etc., and at least fifty other Kansas towns.

We have also decided to sell this paper on the streets of Topeka by newsboys only at two cents per copy. Don't pay more.

This paper is entirely different from last night's regular city edition and is entirely different from our today's city edition issued about 4 o'clock will be.

This paper, we confidently believe, is the best noon edition ever issued in Topeka. It contains important news and markets that have not yet been printed by any other paper in the state or Kansas City for circulation in Kansas or Topeka.

It is the State Journal's earnest desire to supply every demand in Topeka and Kansas City for news, namely, from 11 o'clock in the morning until 11 o'clock at night on every day but Sunday.

The Capital has the exclusive local Sunday paper and a good one too. In Topeka and we do not care to interfere with their territory in Topeka on that day.

This edition is not delivered by carrier, but sold only by newsboys. Of course it is on sale at news stands and on trains. The price from newsboys is 2 cents, but the news agents and the news stands expect 5 cents. It is supplied to newsboys and news stands at wholesale, on uniform orders for six days a week at a rate of 1 cent per copy, postage paid.

N. B. If the Topeka people show that they want this paper, they can have it for 2 cents.

The advertisements and the news matter in this paper to the extent of eight or nine pages are absolutely new.

The regular city edition, issued at 4 o'clock, will contain at least eight or ten new pages that have not appeared in this or any other paper, but will be necessary on account of advertisements received late today, and news gathered by reporters and Associated Press wires between 11 and 3 o'clock. The Associated Press report is received in the State Journal office up to a half hour in the afternoon.

If you want this paper, tell the newsboy when you buy this copy, that you want him to sell you a copy every day.

He will not permit anything offensive, but he will sell you a copy every day.

ATTACKS A GIRL.

Idela Anderson, Aged 15, Cruelly Beaten by a Man.

Leaves Girl Unconscious and Ransacks the House.

TRIES TO DEFEND SELF

Hurls Smoothing Iron at Brute as He Approaches.

Uses Revolver to Intimidate the Child.

While alone with her baby brother in the house at 29 Wagner street, 15 year old Idela Anderson was brutally attacked Thursday afternoon by an unknown man. Thirty minutes later, the mother returned from a visit to the home of a neighbor and found her daughter lying on the kitchen floor in an unconscious condition. It was several hours before the girl revived and was able to relate her thrilling experience. Though the circumstances indicate otherwise, the chief motive was evidently robbery.

From every indication the attack had been carefully planned and not an incident occurred to mar the success of its execution. The Anderson home is in a secluded spot, 150 yards east of the asylum grounds and 250 feet from the nearest house. The Anderson place is hidden in a clump of bushes and trees and on the south and east of the house a little stream runs through a deep ravine. The natural surroundings of the place made possible the attack on the defenseless girl and afforded little opportunity for neighbors or chance travellers along the lonely street to observe the actions of the brute.

Early in the afternoon Mrs. Anderson had gone to the home of a neighbor on the opposite side of the little stream. Perhaps from one of the many clumps of bushes the brute watched the mother leave the home, and his mission was accomplished long before Mrs. Anderson returned to the home to find her unconscious daughter. Before an alarm was given the unknown man had been afforded a full hour in which to escape.
